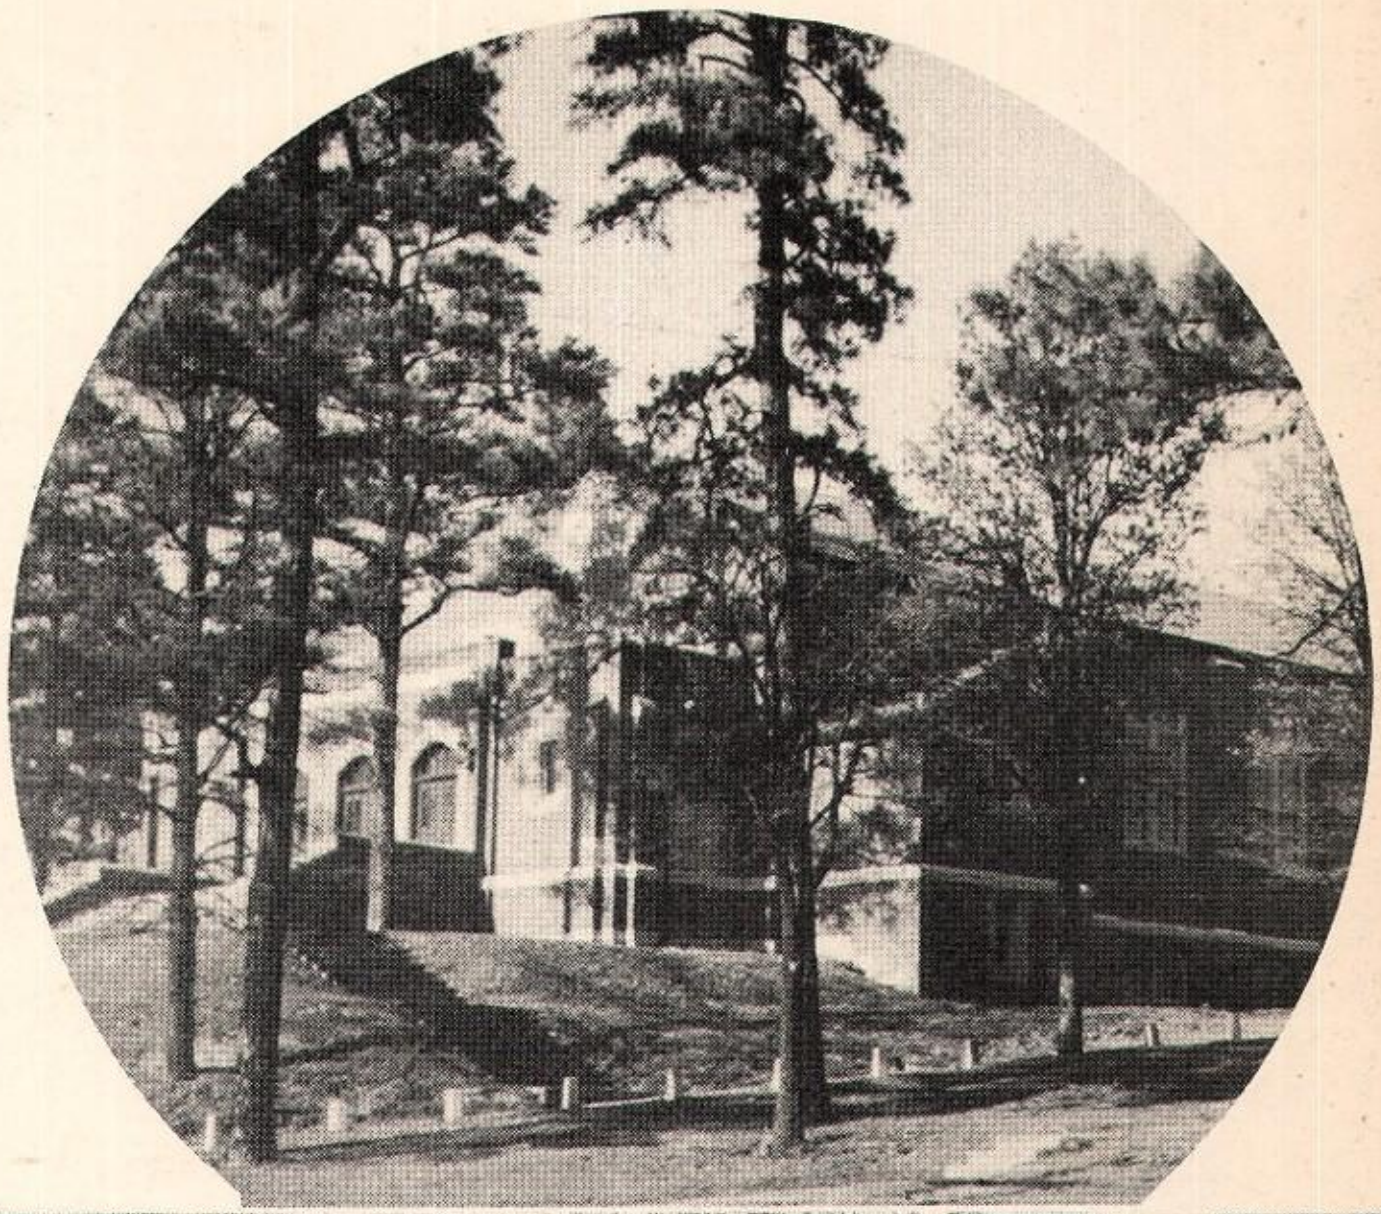
Saint Mary's

We all love St. Mary's,
The best school we know of—
We'll boost her and hail her
To heaven above.
She's our Alma Mater;
There's none other like her,
And all through life
We'll pledge to her
Our Loyalty.
St. Mary's so stately,
In knowledge she's shining;
We'll always be pining,
For her when we're gone.
We'll always remember
In May or September;
From day to day,
In work or play
Our Loyalty.

Alma Mater

High on a hill top,
Stately in grace,
Grand as a picture
From tip-top to base,
Stands our Alma Mater gay,
Oh, how we love our S.M.A.
Faithful with love
We always will try
To keep up thy standards,
Until we die.
They're our own and yours too.
If we remember
They'll take us through.
We'll never forget you,
Nor lose our claim
To proudly salute,
Our St. Mary's name.



Foreword

The high school days of the Senior Class of 1949 have pleasantly, but much too rapidly, slipped away, and now it is our time to go forth to take our place in the world. The future holds many new and exciting adventures for us, and it is only through the loving guidance and inspiring examples given us by our beloved Sisters, here at the Mount, that we are prepared to meet them.

Here we have been taught to pattern our life on our Blessed Mother, and since we have chosen stars as the theme of our yearbook, we have placed our trust in Mary, Star of the Sea, to shield and protect us from all harm and danger.

In the years to come, as we thumb through the pages of our Mercian, looking at the starry-eyed graduates and reliving in memory the activities of our senior year, we shall have this one prayer in our hearts, as we "Look to the Star and call on Mary", that we may shine like stars in the night, to the east, to the west, though scattered we may be, and that our radiance will reflect the Catholic education which we have received from our beloved Alma Mater.

Dedication

TO

Mary, Star of the Sea

Whose Shining Light has inspired our work and play during our years at Mt. St. Mary's. May she always prove herself near to us so that we may fulfill our teachers' precept that we pattern our lives on her. May she watch over us and guide our frail little crafts as we launch out from the haven of our beloved Mount onto the dark and perilous seas of our after-school life. Confidently let us

Respice Stellam Voca Mariam!

Our Chaplain's Message to the Graduates

Mount St. Mary's Academy
Little Rock, Arkansas

Dear Graduates of the Class of 1949:

When the editor of the Mercian called upon me recently and requested that I write my usual parting message to the graduating class, I was reminded of the fact that the years pass quickly. It doesn't seem possible that it is time to say adieu to another class that has been in training here for four years. I have seen a good many classes come and go during the twenty-five years that I have been chaplain at Mount St. Mary's. I have written valedictory letters to most of the graduating classes and I have often wondered with what effect. After a few years have passed, it is interesting and sometimes surprising to go through the pages of any yearbook and compare the hopes and predictions of the members of the class with what has happened in real life.

Usually the Mercian staff chooses a certain theme that runs through the various school activities which are recorded. This year I am informed that the arrangement stresses stars. Of course, the star of the greatest magnitude in the lives of all St. Mary's girls, is the Blessed Virgin, the lodestar of every good Catholic woman.

I want to quote a few lines from Carlyle, the Scottish essayist, which seem very appropriate for an occasion of this kind. "A star is beautiful; it affords pleasure, not for what it is to do or to give, but simply by being what it is." These lines seem to depict the real St. Mary's girl, as the Sisters want her to be. They would have her to be beautiful, not necessarily in a physical way, but a beautiful character, who enriches and embellishes her environment by being what she is, a product of the training she has received under the loving and watchful guidance of the Sisters of Mercy.

The time has come when you, members of the Class of 1949, must leave the school which has sheltered you during the crucial years of your high school life. You have been most fortunate in having your training directed during these years by Religious women, who have dedicated their own lives to God in order that they may train young women to be real Christian ladies.

Go forth with the resolution to always remain faithful to the principles that you have learned from these noble women, who love you as if you were their own children, and who will watch your careers with anxious solicitude for your welfare.

Under the watchful eyes of the Sisters, you have grown from childhood to a beautiful maturity, which finds you well equipped to live a life which will be considered a success when measured by the standards set by Almighty God. You are the product of lives of sacrifice. Never forget the obligation that this places upon you.

And now we come to that bitter word, which closes all earthly friendships and finishes every feast of love—farewell. May God bless you and may He guide you to eternal bliss. In the meantime, though we are parted for reasons over which we have no control, let us always be mindful of each other at the hour of prayer.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas L. Keany

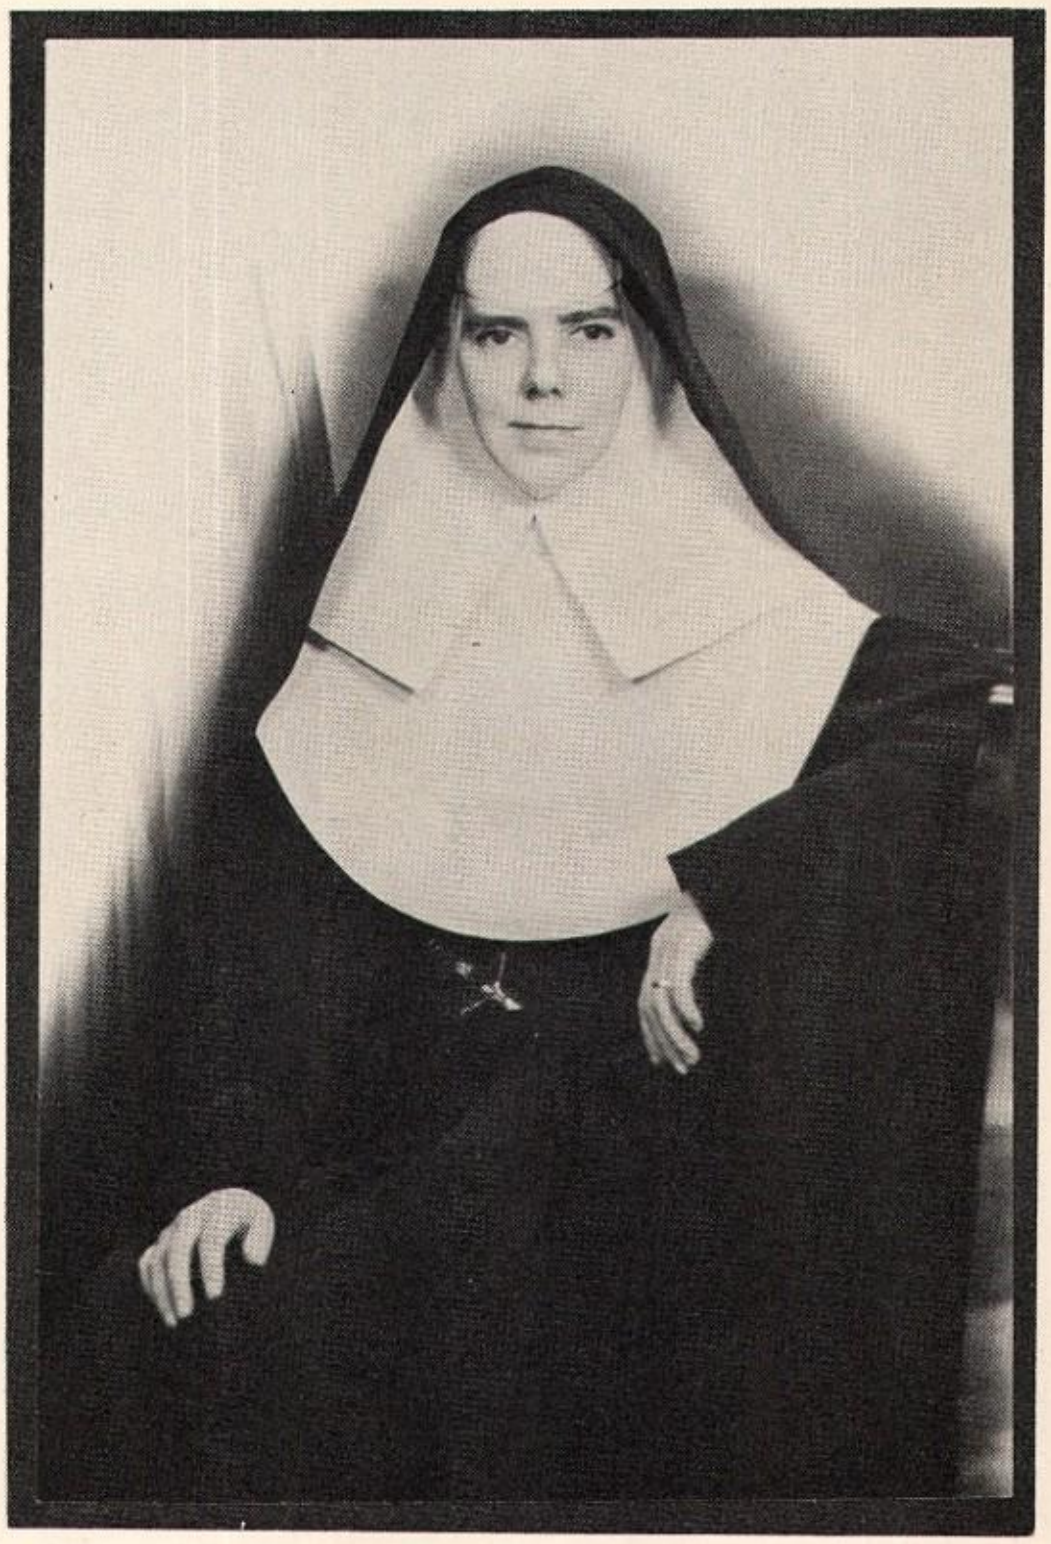
In Memoriam



SISTER MARY AMBROSE CONWAY, R. S. M.

In loving memory of Sister Mary Ambrose, who entered into Eternal Rest, January 24, we dedicate this page in recognition of her twenty-five years of devoted service to her Divine Spouse in the person of His "little ones." Several of us felt the kind, directing hand of Sister during our early childhood as "little boarders in the baby dorm"; many of us experienced her patient understanding during our early adolescence; all of us knew her and admired her faithful devotion to duty, in spite of ill health, during the past year. We loved her in life; we shall not forget her in death. May she, from her Heavenly Home, continue her watch over us!

Sodality of the Blessed Virgin

The Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary, under a capable staff of officers appointed by Sister Mary Mark, Sodality Moderator, began its year of activity with the first meeting in September.

Sodality meetings were held every Friday afternoon at the regular Religion period. Several entertaining programs were presented, consisting of quizzes, short plays, and interesting talks. On the first Friday of every month, the Sodalists recited the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin in the chapel. Thirty-five students were received into the Sodality on December 8, at an impressive ceremony, conducted by Msgr. Joseph A. Murray.

The outstanding activity of the year was a lecture by Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S. J., on March 11. Father Lord spoke to an audience of Sodalists and their parents and guests on "The Knights and Handmaids of the Blessed Sacrament."

Other activities receiving the enthusiastic support of the Sodalists were the students' annual three-day retreat, continued donations to the Sodality "adopted" mission in India, generous response to the plea for contributions to the missions of the Maryknoll Sisters, Christmas baskets for the old ladies of the Confederate Home, donations to the Press Club CARE project, participation in the international Spiritual Bouquet to the Holy Father at Christmas and on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of his Ordination to the Holy Priesthood.

Purpose of the club is to help Latin students understand more fully the manners and customs of the early Romans. The meetings, scheduled for the first Thursday of each month, gave the members an opportunity of learning much about the Latin culture and language through songs, reports, games, and short skits.

A Latin book edited by Lawrence A. Towers was used in addition to the regular Latin book this year. This book helped the Latin students with their grammar, translations, and study of historical background.

On Saint Valentine's Day, the students enjoyed oral Latin Valentines with verses such as, "Erisne valentina mea?" and "Rosa sunt rubrae, Violae sunt caerulae, Saccahron est dulce, Etian Tu!" A special program was planned in celebration of National Latin Week to close the club activities for the year.

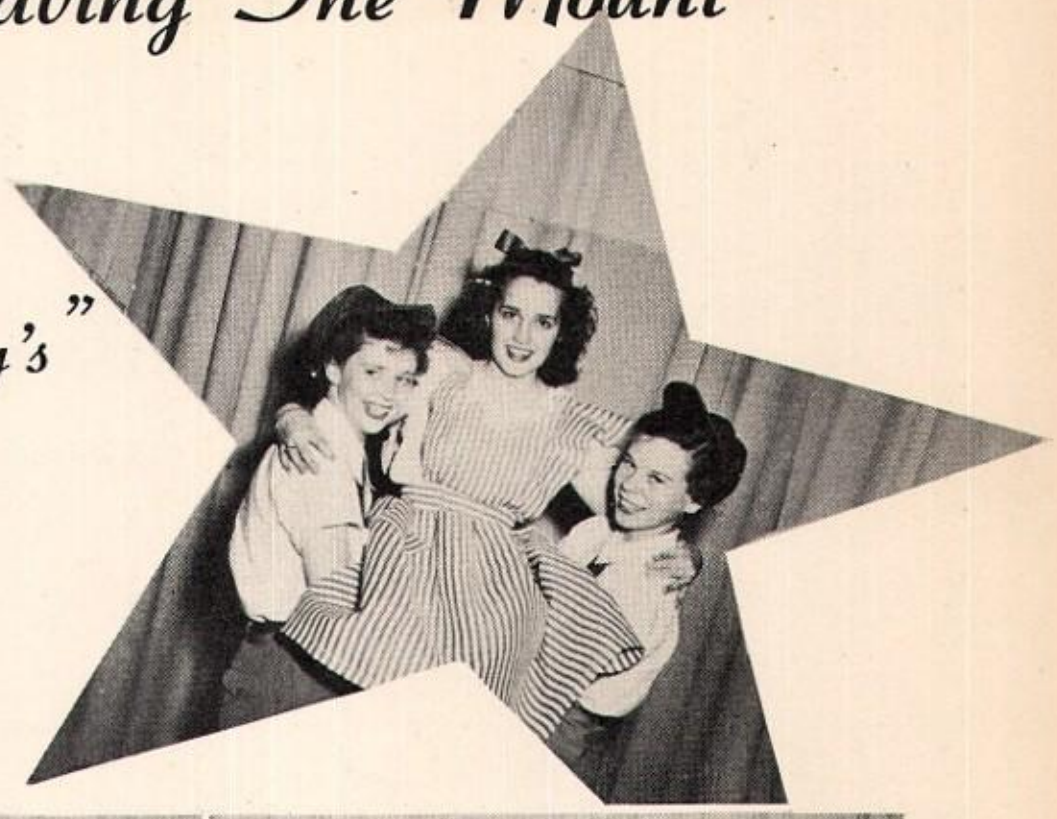
We Sailed To Far-Off Places

Class Talent Program

As an all-school assembly we presented a talent program, which featured members of our class as crew of the ship " U. S. S. St. Mary's." During the program, several countries were visited with song and dance typical of each. Msgr. Murray accompanied us on our voyage and caught "in the act" a few of the numbers. When in Holland we saw Nita and Jody as a little Dutch couple by the "Little Dutch Mill." While visiting on Broadway we found Joan, Rita, Pat, Mary Jo, and Dorothy "On the Sidewalks of New York." Down Mexico way, the pretty senoritas, Winifred, Mary Anne, Jennie, Ruth, "Mike", Joyce, and Rosie sang and danced "Manana". We docked while the MOUNT stopped the show and "Shorty", "Caso", "Luke", Donna, and Linda took a peek at the latest school news.

Without Ever Leaving The Mount

On the "U. S. S. St. Mary's"



We set sail again for England where we saw Jerry on a "Bicycle Built For Two" pedaled by Kay and Peggy. We heard far-"off" Joan singing "Hurray, Hurray, I'm Going Away". Traveling to China, we met Pat, "The Rickety-Rickshaw Man" and her passenger Mary Anne. Back home again, we joined the barbershop quartet, composed of Shorty, Caso, Luke, and Donna. We attended a square-dance "Country Style" and watched couples Gerry, Buji, Pete, Luke, Linda, Caso, Wanda, and Donna. But still ringing in our ears we heard the shouts of "Bongo, Bongo, Bongo" from "uneducated savages" Ebby, Pat, and Ann Claire. All through the journey, "Captain" Sister Mary Declan guided our good ship "U. S. S. St. Mary's."

We Went With Our Mothers To Tea

Mother–Daughter Silver Tea

The annual PTA Mother-Daughter Silver Tea was held late in January at the home of Mrs. Bernard Heinze. An imported hand embroidered linen cloth adorned the table. The center piece, an arrangement of spring flowers, was flanked on either side with crystal candelabra holding white tapers. All high school students and their mothers were invited to attend.

Seated at the silver service are left: Mrs. M. D. Karcher and right, Mrs. Joe P. Gilmore. Standing: Mrs. Bernard Heinze, Mrs. Wendell Ralphe, Mrs. August Probst, Mrs. Ben J. Booth, Mrs. Norwood Henderson, Mrs. R. K. Dittemore, Mrs. Edward Garbacz, Mrs. D. J. Nelson and Mrs. Otto Frazier.
